Legal Advisory and Conveyancing Office ("LACO")
Circular Memorandum ("CM") No. 68

Lands Department Consent Scheme
Measure to enhance transparency in property sales for sale of residential units in uncompleted private developments

The requirements as set out in Annex I to LACO CM No. 62 (as varied by LACO CM No. 63) with which the sales brochure must comply have been revised. A new paragraph B15 is added to Annex I to LACO CM No. 62 (as varied by LACO CM No. 63) that the sales brochure must include a cross-section plan in relation to every building in the development. The revised Annex together with its Appendices is attached. With immediate effect, consent to sell uncompleted residential units to be issued will be subject to, among others, a condition that the sales brochure must comply with the Annex to this CM.

Revised Annex I to LACO CM No. 62 attached to LACO CM No. 63 is hereby replaced. LACO CM No. 40 (as varied by subsequent LACO CM including LACO CM Nos. 62 and 63) is amended, as appropriate. Except as varied by this CM, all other terms of the Consent Scheme remain in full force and effect.

Copies of this CM and the attachment may be downloaded from the Lands Department website at www.landsd.gov.hk.

Sales Brochure

The sales brochure must comply with the requirements set out in this Annex.

A. General Requirements

1. All information as required under the Lands Department Consent Scheme and the consent letter issued to the developer to enter into agreements for sale and purchase must be contained in one booklet entitled “sales brochure” (which Chinese translation should be “售樓說明書”). Any other booklet (e.g. promotional materials) made available to prospective purchasers must not be called “sales brochure” or “售樓說明書”.
2. The sales brochure must not contain any promotional material or artist impression picture or graphic, but may contain a one-page to-scale close-up picture showing the outer appearance or building elevation of the development endorsed by the authorized person registered with the Building Authority for the development (“Authorized Person”).
3. The sales brochure must begin with the information following the sequence as far as possible as set out in Appendix I before presenting other information.
4. The sales brochure must not contain any statement to the effect that the Agreement for Sale and Purchase or the Deed of Mutual Covenant or the Sub-Deed of Mutual Covenant (if any) or any other aspect of the development is subject to the Lands Department Consent Scheme or has been approved by the Director of Lands.
5. The sales brochure must state the date of its printing.
6. The sales brochure must be provided in both English and Chinese, with a statement in both English and Chinese that “where there is discrepancy in meaning between the English and Chinese versions, the English version shall prevail” “中英文版本如有歧義，以英文版本為準”.

B. Information In the Sales Brochure

The sales brochure must include at least the following information, which must be accurate at the time of printing the sales brochure:-

1. Basic Information of the Development

- (a) Description of the development, including but not limited to:-
 - (i) the postal address of the development as confirmed with the Commissioner of Rating and Valuation;
 - (ii) (where the development comprises multi-storeyed building(s)) the total number of storeys of each tower in the development and the floor numbering of the development as set out in the approved form of Deed of Mutual Covenant or Sub-Deed of Mutual Covenant (if any) (collectively “DMC”), including any omitted floor numbering and refuge floors; and
 - (iii) (where the development comprises houses) the total number of houses and the house numbering of the development as set out in the DMC, including any omitted house numbering.
- (b) Information on the developer, authorized person, contractor, solicitors firm, mortgagee bank, financier, etc. including the names of:-
 - (i) the developer, its parent or holding company;
 - (ii) the Authorized Person and the professional firm to which the Authorized Person belongs;
 - (iii) the main superstructure contractor for the development registered with the Building Authority;
 - (iv) the solicitors firm representing the developer in the sale of units in the development;
 - (v) the mortgagee bank (if any) financing the construction of the development under a building mortgage;
 - (vi) the bank which has given an undertaking to provide finance to complete the development (if any); and
 - (vii) the financier which had provided loans to finance the development (if any),

and any personal or financial relationship of the Authorized Person and the partner of the solicitors firm with the developer, its parent or holding company and the main superstructure contractor.

[NOTE: If there are any subsequent changes to the persons or the relationships disclosed, amendments to the sales brochure must be made immediately and the Director of Lands must be informed of the changes within 3 working days.]

- (c) Information on the anticipated completion date of the development.

2. Design of the Development and Property Management

- (a) Information on the design of the development, including but not limited to whether there are any non-structural prefabricated external walls or curtain walls forming part of the enclosing walls and if so:-
 - (i) the range of thickness of the non-structural prefabricated external walls of each block and the total area of the non-structural prefabricated external walls of each unit; and
 - (ii) the range of thickness of the curtain walls of each block and the total area of the curtain walls of each unit.
- (b) Information on the identity of the intended manager (if known).

3. Location Plan of the Development

Location Plan which must be at least 16cm long and 16cm wide with the font size of the related legends being at least 10, showing:-

- (a) the location of the development and the names of the nearby streets; and
- (b) the communal facilities and prominent environmental features within 250m from the boundary of the whole development (but not individual phases of the development), including but not limited to the communal facilities/environmental features set out in the list at Appendix II;

and all pictorial presentations must be drawn to scale.

4. Relevant Outline Zoning Plan

Relevant Outline Zoning Plan which must be at least 16cm long and 16cm wide with the font size of the related legends being at least 10, showing the existing and proposed uses of land within 500m from the whole development (but not individual phases of the development).

[NOTE: Sufficient copies of the relevant Outline Zoning Plan must be deposited in the sale office(s) for inspection by prospective purchasers free of charge.]

5. Master Layout Plan of the Development

Master Layout Plan which must be drawn to scale (with the scale used marked on the plan), showing the location and layouts of the building(s), open areas, facilities and undeveloped land (with the intended use) within the boundary of the development and setting out the expected completion date of the building(s) and facilities.

6. Floor Plans

Floor Plans of typical and non-typical floors (with the scale used marked on the plans), showing all principal external dimensions of the residential units, the external dimensions of individual compartments in each residential unit and the floor-to-floor height of the residential units in accordance with the latest building plan(s) approved by the Building Authority, with a note informing prospective purchasers that the internal areas of the residential units on the upper floors will generally be slightly larger than the lower floors due to the reducing thickness of the structural walls on the upper floors. If there are special fittings/features affecting the enjoyment of a residential unit (e.g. exposed pipes), the location of such special fittings/features must be specified.

[NOTE: Sufficient copies of the building plans approved by the Building Authority must be deposited in the sales office(s) for inspection by prospective purchasers free of charge.]

7. Area Schedule of Units

Information on the saleable area, unit covered area, gross floor area and other areas of each unit in the format at Appendix III(A) or Appendix III(B).

8. Floor Plan of the Carpark

- (a) Floor Plan(s) showing the location of the parking spaces (if any).
- (b) Information on the number, dimensions and area of the parking space (if any).

9. Salient Points of Deed of Mutual Covenant (DMC)

Salient points of the DMC including:-

- (a) common parts;
- (b) undivided shares;
- (c) terms of appointment of manager;
- (d) principle/basis of fixing management fee;
- (e) apportionment of management expenses;
- (f) management fee deposit; and
- (g) retained areas (if any),

with a note informing prospective purchasers that a full script of the DMC is available for inspection upon request, free of charge.

[NOTE: Sufficient copies of the DMC must be deposited in the sales office(s) for inspection by prospective purchasers free of charge.]

10. Salient Points of Land Grant Conditions

Salient points of the relevant land grant ("Land Grant Conditions"), including:-

- (a) lot number;
- (b) lease term;
- (c) user restriction;

- (d) Government, institutional or community facilities (“GIC” facilities”), public open space and public facilities to be constructed;
- (e) obligations to construct or maintain structures or landscape inside or outside the boundary of the development; and
- (f) onerous lease conditions (if any) which would affect purchasers’ usual legal rights.

[NOTE: Sufficient copies of the Land Grant Conditions must be deposited in the sales office(s) for inspection by prospective purchasers free of charge.]

11. Government, Institutional or Community Facilities, Public Open Space and Public Facilities

- (a) Information in a separate section, in larger prints, on the GIC facilities, public open space and public facilities (if any), including:-
 - (i) the area (in figures) of the public open space; and
 - (ii) a description of the GIC facilities and the public facilities.
- (b) Prominent statements illustrating the fact (as the case may be):-
 - (i) that the public have the right to enter into and use the public open space and the public facilities freely and without payment of any nature; and
 - (ii) that the public open space and the public facilities are to be managed, operated and maintained at the expense of the owners and that the owners will have to meet a proportion of the expense of managing, operating and maintaining such public open space and public facilities in any management expenses apportioned to their units.
- (c) Plan(s) showing the location of all GIC facilities, public open space and (if possible) public facilities, which must be coloured or shaded in the same colour, format or pattern (if applicable) as stipulated in the Land Grant Conditions.
- (d) Relevant terms of the Land Grant Conditions, the DMC and the Deed of Dedication (if applicable) concerning the GIC facilities, the public open space and the public facilities.

12. Matters relating to Preliminary Agreement for Sale and Purchase

Information concerning the preliminary agreements for sale and purchase (“PASP”), including prominent statements that:-

- (a) the preliminary deposit payable on the signing of a PASP is an amount equivalent to 10% of the purchase price of the residential unit (and any parking space);
- (b) the preliminary deposits paid by purchasers on the signing of the PASPs will be encashed and the proceeds held by the stakeholders;
- (c) if the purchaser under the PASP does not, for any reason, sign the Agreement for Sale and Purchase (“ASP”), the developer has the right to keep the preliminary deposit paid by him which is an amount equivalent to 10% of the purchase price; and
- (d) the purchaser under the ASP is required to agree with the developer in the ASP to the effect that other than entering into a mortgage or charge, he will not nominate any person to take up the Assignment, sub-sell the residential unit (and any parking space) or transfer the benefit of the ASP in any manner whatsoever or enter into any agreement so to do before completion of the sale and purchase and execution of the Assignment.

13. Notes to Purchasers of First-hand Residential Properties

Full script of the most updated version of the “Notes to Purchasers of First-hand Residential Properties” jointly published by the Estate Agents Authority and the Consumer Council.

Definition of “Saleable Area”:

the floor area of a unit enclosed by walls (inclusive of the floor area of any balconies, utility platforms and verandahs but exclusive of the Other Areas), which area (including any balcony, utility platform or verandah enclosed by walls) shall be measured from the exterior of the enclosing walls of such unit, balconies, utility platforms or verandahs (as the case may be) except where such enclosing walls separate two adjoining units, balconies, utility platforms or verandahs (as the case may be), in which case the measurement shall be taken from the middle of those walls, and shall include the internal partitions and columns within such unit, balconies, utility platforms or verandahs (as the case may be); but shall exclude the common parts outside the enclosing walls of such unit, balconies, utility platforms or verandahs (as the case may be), and for balconies, utility platforms or verandahs, shall exclude the whole thickness of the enclosing walls or boundary which abut onto the unit Provided That if any of the enclosing walls abut onto a common area, then the whole thickness of the enclosing walls which so abut shall be included. Where a balcony, utility platform or verandah is not enclosed by a solid wall, the floor area of such balcony, utility platform or verandah shall be measured from the external boundary of the said balcony, utility platform or verandah.

Definition of “Other Areas”:

the area of any cockloft which shall be measured from the interior of the enclosing walls and shall include the internal partitions and columns within such cockloft;

the area of any bay window which shall be measured from the exterior of the enclosing walls or glass windows of such bay window and from the point where the bay window meets the wall dropping to the floor level of a unit excluding the thickness of such wall;

the area of any carparking space which shall be measured to the centre of its demarcating lines or the interior face of its enclosing walls, as the case may be;

the area of any yard, terrace, garden, flat roof, roof and air-conditioning plant room which shall be measured from the interior of their boundary lines, and where boundary consists of a wall, then it shall be measured from the interior of such wall.
